- a. is occupied by 5 or more persons and
- b. is occupied by persons living in 2 or more separate households.

Notes:

- A household is defined as members of the same family and those living as a married couple.
- Loft conversions and commercial premises are included as a storey for both schemes.
- Buildings converted in to self-contained flats do not require a licence unless the individual flat meets the licensing criteria.
- Purpose build blocks with more than 4 flats are exempt from licensing.

Planning permission:

If there are more than 6 people living in your property, you are required to seek planning permission.

If you are not sure whether permission or approval is required for the property for which you are seeking a licence, contact the Council's Development Control Department on 020 8547 5002. Where permission or approval has already been obtained, please enclose a copy with your application.

 As a licensed HMO, the person managing / in control is required under the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 to risk assess fire safety in their properties, to take adequate precautions to reduce that risk and to manage that risk which remains. This should be undertaken by a competent person and reviewed regularly.

Any applications which are incomplete, will not be processed. Incomplete applications include missing supporting documents, an outstanding fee and incomplete application forms.

Part 1 – APPLICANT DETAILS

The applicant is the person who is completing the form. This could be on their own or someone else's behalf.

The applicant does not have to be the owner, manager or the proposed license holder. If the applicant is a company or similar body, give the official registered or principal address.

Part 2 – PROPOSED LICENCE HOLDER DETAILS

In Part 2 the applicant must provide details of the person or company who will be the license holder, and therefore bound by the terms of the license. Normally, the proposed license holder will be an individual who has a degree of responsibility for the property, for example, the owner or managing agent. If the applicant is a company or similar body, give the official registered or principal address.

All fields are to be completed and a telephone number must be provided.

Unless the proposed licence holder is a resident landlord, they must provide their correspondence address.

If the address of the proposed licence holder is outside the UK, an alternative address within the UK must be provided. This could be the address of your managing agent (their consent should be obtained).

Part 3 – MANAGER DETAILS

If there is a Manager employed to manage the property on the landlord's behalf, this section should be completed. For example if you employ the services of a letting agent to collect the rent, carry out repairs etc. All fields to be completed and a telephone number must be provided.

If there is no manager for the property, please tick "No" to 3.1 and go to Part 4.

Part 4 – OWNER DETAILS

"Owner" means a person who is for the time being a freeholder or leaseholder of the property, or any person to whom that title would revert if an event occurred, examples of which would be death or expiration of time, which event will be detailed in the terms of the deeds to the property. Where there are multiple owners, including freeholders and leaseholders, details of all owners must be provided.

If there has been any financial borrowing against the property, details must be provided in Part 4.2 of the form. This is because the Council has to check that any company with a charge registered against the HMO has been made aware of the HMO licence application.

If there is no freeholder, leaseholder, Mortgage Company or any other person with a financial interest in the property, please mark as "N/A" and go to Part 5.

Parts 5 – OCCUPIER DETAILS

An 'occupier' means a person who occupies the property as their main residence; this person can be a tenant, leaseholder, licensee, resident landlord or a person having an estate or interest in the property. Children and babies are also considered to be occupiers, and should each be counted as one individual regardless of their age.

EXAMPLES: A tenant on an assured shorthold tenancy would be an occupier. A lodger with sole use of one room would be an occupier. A person who is given accommodation in connection with their work, for example in the restaurant below, is an occupier, regardless of whether rent is paid.

A 'household' for the purposes of the Housing Act 2004 comprises:

- A single person; or
- Co-habiting couples (whether or not of the opposite sex); or
- A family. Included in the definition of a single family are parents, grandparents, children (including foster children, step-children and children being cared for), grandchildren, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces or cousins. Half-relatives will be treated as full relatives. Any domestic staffs are also included in the household if they are living in rent-free accommodation provided by the person for whom they are working.

EXAMPLES: Three friends sharing together are considered three households because they are not related to each other. If a couple are sharing with a third person that would constitute two households. If a family rents a property this is a single household.

A 'letting' is any rented unit of accommodation, this could be a:

- Room/bedsit
- Studio
- Flat
- Floor by floor let
- House
- An empty bedroom

EXAMPLES: A house let on a shared basis to five people would count as five lettings. A property occupied by Mr and Mrs Owner and their three unrelated occupiers would count as four lettings and would be a HMO.

A 'habitable room' is any room which can be occupied during the day. This includes bedroom, living room and dining room. It does not include bathrooms, WCs and small kitchens.

Part 6 – AMENITIES

Amenities are cooking, bathing and toilet facilities which may be shared by people or households or available for the exclusive use of people or households

Part 7 – FIRE SAFETY

All HMOs must have adequate fire precautions for detection and giving warning of fire and escape from the building.

All upholstered furniture supplied with rented accommodation MUST comply with the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire) (Safety) Regulations 1988 (as amended). This means that all cover materials must have passed cigarette and match ignition tests and the filling materials must have passed flammability tests. You should check to see that your furniture has a label permanently attached to the lining or underside giving the appropriate details.

Under the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 the landlord must have an annual gas safety check on all gas appliances undertaken by a registered Gas Safe engineer. A COPY OF THE LATEST GAS SAFETY CERTIFICATE MUST BE SUBMITTED WITH THE APPLICATION FORM.

Part 8 – PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

Details of the arrangements in place for the management of the property. Standards of management are specified in The Management of HMOs (England) Regulations 2006.

Part 9 – TENANCY MANAGEMENT

Details of how tenancies are managed.

Immigration checks are a legal requirement for all tenancies commencing on or after 1st October 2015 and tenants must be provided with the Governments 'Right to Rent' booklet or you may be liable for a civil penalty fine and/or unable to undertake legal eviction proceedings. For further details please go to: www.gov.uk/check-tenant-right-to-rent-documents

Part 10 – TYPE OF PROPERTY

General details of the type of property and when it was built or converted. If converted, a relevant Building Control completion certificate must be enclosed with the application

Part 11 - Room and Occupier Information

You must complete this section in full for all rooms within the property including kitchens, bathrooms and conservatories etc. Room sizes must be provided in M² and include the location and brief description in the table provided. The number of tenants and households must also be listed against each room. This must also include any rooms occupied / for the exclusive use of a resident landlord. If you have any queries regarding 'households' then please contact us, using the details provided at the start of these guidance notes.

Part 12 - Licence holder test of fitness and compliance with management conditions

The local authority must be satisfied that the person applying for an HMO licence is a "fit and proper person" to hold a licence. The same test applies to any person managing the premises and any director or partner in a company or organisation, which owns and/or manages the HMO. The local authority may approach other authorities such as the Police Authority, Fire & Rescue Service and the Office of Fair Trading as to whether the applicant has any relevant convictions. Also, information can be obtained from the Criminal Records Bureau.

If you do have any convictions you are required to declare, these should not be sent with the application form but should be sent under separate confidential cover. Unspent convictions may be convictions for which the rehabilitation period has not been completed, or convictions, which are excluded from the Act (i.e. never spent). Not all convictions would be relevant to a person's prospective role as an operator of an HMO, for example motoring offences would not be relevant but a conviction for fraud or theft could be since the operator would be in a position of trust. If you are unsure about any matter, please contact us.

Answering yes to any of the questions in this part will not necessarily mean that the council will refuse to issue a licence. However, the council reserves the right to reject any person nominated as the proposed licence holder if they are not considered a fit and proper person. Under such circumstances, somebody who is deemed to be a fit and proper person will have to be nominated to hold the HMO licence.

Part 13 - Additional Information

You must let certain persons know in writing that you have made this application or give them a copy of it. The persons who need to know about it are:

- Any mortgagee of the property to be licensed;
- Any owner of the property to which the application relates (if that is not you) i.e. the freeholder and any head lessors who are known to you;
