List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

One Punch Drinks Ltd will operate a small-scale, made-to-order alcohol business from a private residential property with no public access. All alcohol will be compounded, bottled, stored securely, and dispatched directly to customers via recognised courier services.

To promote all four licensing objectives:

Prevention of crime and disorder: Alcohol will be securely stored in locked areas, and records of suppliers and customers will be maintained. The DPS, who holds a personal licence, will oversee all alcohol-related activity.

Public safety: All production and storage areas are contained within the premises, away from public access, with fire safety equipment in place. Alcohol will only be handled and packaged by trained staff.

Prevention of public nuisance: No customers will visit the premises. Deliveries will be made during reasonable hours to minimise disturbance. Noise and waste will be managed responsibly.

Protection of children from harm: Strict Challenge 25 age verification will be enforced on all orders and deliveries. Alcohol will never be sold to persons under 18. Couriers will also follow age verification procedures.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Alcohol will be stored in a dedicated, locked area of the premises to prevent unauthorised access.

Comprehensive records will be kept of all suppliers and customers.

The DPS, who holds a valid personal licence, will oversee all alcohol-related activities and ensure compliance with licensing laws.

Only trained staff will handle alcohol production, bottling, and packaging.

Deliveries will be made via recognised courier services that follow age verification and secure handling procedures.

Any suspicious activity or attempted under age sales will be recorded and reported as appropriate.

c) Public safety

All production, bottling, and storage of alcohol will take place within designated areas of the premises that are secure and away from public access.

Fire safety equipment, including smoke alarms and extinguishers, will be maintained in the premises.

All staff handling alcohol will be trained in safe handling procedures.

Deliveries will be packaged safely and dispatched via recognised courier services to minimise risk.

Premises will be kept clean and maintained to prevent accidents or hazards.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

There will be no customers visiting the premises; all alcohol sales are made-to-order and delivered.

Deliveries will occur during reasonable hours to minimise noise and disruption to neighbours.

Packaging and dispatch activities will be managed to avoid any unnecessary noise or waste.

Waste from the business will be disposed of responsibly, in accordance with local regulations.

Operations are designed to have minimal impact on the surrounding residential area.

e) The protection of children from harm

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].

- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

1. General – All Four Licensing Objectives

One Punch Drinks Ltd is a small-scale, home-based business producing bespoke, made-to-order alcoholic beverages for delivery only. There will be no public access or on-site consumption. Alcohol will be compounded, bottled, and securely stored within a designated area of the premises (the kitchen), in accordance with health, safety, and licensing regulations.

The business will operate under the direct supervision of the DPS, who holds a valid personal licence. All alcohol will be sold and supplied to verified customers aged 18 or over, through controlled and traceable transactions. Robust procedures are in place to promote the four licensing objectives:

- Prevention of crime and disorder
- Public safety
- Prevention of public nuisance
- Protection of children from harm

2. The Prevention of Crime and Disorder

- Alcohol and ingredients will be sourced only from legitimate, AWRS-registered suppliers.
- Alcohol will be stored securely in a locked area when not in use.
- The DPS will maintain full transaction records for all purchases and sales.
- All staff (if any are engaged) will receive training on age verification, refusal of sale, and responsible alcohol handling.
- CCTV is installed at the front of the premises for general security and deterrence.
- Any suspicious activity or attempted underage purchase will be logged and reported to the relevant authorities.

3. Public Safety

- Production and bottling activities will take place in the kitchen area, which is fitted with smoke alarms.
- Equipment will be maintained in good condition and used according to safety guidance.
- No hazardous or flammable materials will be stored on-site beyond standard domestic quantities.
- Packaging and dispatch will follow safe handling procedures to minimise any risk to staff or couriers.
- The DPS will ensure compliance with all relevant food hygiene and health and safety standards.

4. The Prevention of Public Nuisance

- No customers or members of the public will visit the premises.
- All orders will be placed online and delivered via recognised courier services.
- Noise will be minimised by restricting production and dispatch operations to reasonable daytime hours.
- Waste materials (bottles, packaging, ingredients) will be disposed of responsibly through household or commercial waste channels.
- The premises will not produce odours or disturbances beyond normal domestic activity.

5. The Protection of Children from Harm

- A strict Challenge 25 policy will be applied to all sales.
- Age verification will occur at the point of order and again upon delivery, via couriers who operate a robust "Age Verified Delivery" process.
- Alcohol will never be sold or delivered to any person under 18 years of age.
- The business does not produce content, marketing, or labelling likely to appeal to minors.
- Any third-party staff or couriers will be made aware of age verification obligations.

6. Summary

This business operates as a low-risk, made-to-order drinks producer with no public interaction at the premises. It will be run by an experienced personal licence holder with strong knowledge of alcohol legislation and responsible retailing. All reasonable steps have been taken to ensure that the operation promotes the licensing objectives, prevents nuisance, and maintains compliance with the Licensing Act 2003.
