Provide a general description of the premises

For example the type of premises, its general situation and layout and any other information which could be relevant to the licensing objectives. Where your application includes off-supplies of alcohol and you intend to provide a place for consumption of these off- supplies you must include a description of where the place will be and its proximity to the premises.

We are a Chinese restaurant, situated within a commercial parade consists of several commercial organisations and located between 'Mama's Pizza & Pasta' (takeaway) and 'Hunter's Spice' (eat-in and takeaway) restaurants. We are situated in the ground floor of a two story building, like all other commercial premises in the parade.

Our venue is strategically located within this bustling parade of commercial premises, offering a vibrant atmosphere and easy accessibility for Customers.

As a Chinese restaurant, our establishment is well-equipped to serve the customers, which will involve the licensing activity of supplying alcohol to diners. Our premises provide a comfortable and welcoming environment for customers to enjoy their dining experience while adhering to all necessary safety and regulatory requirements.

We have ample space to accommodate up to 70 customers at any time, ensuring a pleasant and enjoyable atmosphere for all participants. We are expecting around 50 to 60 customers at a busy times of Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays.

Additionally, our location benefits from nearby amenities and transportation options, enhancing the convenience for both customers and staff.

If 5,000 or more people are expected to attend the premises at any one time, state the number expected to attend

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

Implementing comprehensive staff training programs covering responsible alcohol service, age verification, and recognising signs of intoxication to promote the licensing objectives effectively.
Developing clear procedures for handling incidents related to alcohol-related crime, disorder, public safety, public nuisance, and the protection of children.
Regularly reviewing and updating risk assessments to identify potential issues and address them proactively, especially concerning the provision of alcohol.
Maintaining close communication with local law enforcement agencies, emergency services, and relevant community groups to collaborate on promoting the licensing objectives and addressing any concerns promptly.
Establishing effective monitoring systems to track compliance with licensing objectives, including alcohol sales, and promptly addressing any issues that arise.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Installing CCTV cameras in key areas to monitor customer behaviour and deter criminal activities.
Training staff members to be vigilant and proactive in identifying and diffusing potentially volatile situations.
Implementing strict ID verification procedures to prevent underage purchasing and consumption of alcohol.
Developing partnerships with local police to share information and coordinate efforts to prevent crime and disorder in the vicinity of the restaurant.
Encouraging responsible alcohol consumption through staff training to promote safe drinking practices.

c) Public safety

Ensuring that all fire safety measures are up to code and conducting regular inspections to maintain compliance.
Providing clear signage and guidance for emergency exits and evacuation procedures, especially in areas where alcohol is served.
Implementing crowd management strategies during busy periods to ensure customer safety and prevent overcrowding (e.g.: Queue Management, prevent overcrowding near the entrance).
Offering first aid training to staff members and keeping a well-equipped first aid kit on-site.
Monitoring the condition of furniture, fixtures, and equipment to prevent accidents or injuries to customers.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Implementing soundproofing measures to minimize noise disturbances for nearby residents, especially during late hours.
Establishing clear policies regarding acceptable noise levels and operating hours to prevent disturbances to the surrounding community.
Monitoring and addressing any issues related to littering, loitering, or disruptive behaviour occurring in the vicinity of the restaurant.

e) The protection of children from harm

Implementing strict age verification procedures to prevent minors from purchasing or consuming alcohol on the premises.
Providing training to staff members on identifying and handling situations involving minors attempting to access alcohol or restricted areas.
Establishing clear policies regarding the supervision of children on the premises and ensuring that they are accompanied by a responsible adult at all times.
Collaborating with local authorities and community organizations to promote awareness of the risks associated with underage drinking and ensure compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
